IMPORTANT INFORMATION

The Department of Health recommends solid foods be introduced at around 6 months of age. Nestlé CERELAC is a complementary food intended for spoon feeding from 6 months and is NOT to be used as a breast milk substitute. Please follow the preparation instructions and be mindful not to overfeed your baby.

Helpful hints and tips for feeding your baby during this developmental stage

- As your child grows, adapt adult meals (e.g. reduce the salt content) or use our recipes and adapt the portions to serve the whole family (to simplify meal times for parents).
- Try to increasingly enjoy meal times together.
- Allow your child to exercise their independence by using a knife and fork and be prepared for messy meal times for a while!
- Move to cows' milk from 12 months (or a toddler milk) but use full fat, approx 400 ml/day.
- Be sure to introduce a wide variety of fruits and vegetables as snacks in between meals at this stage, your child has high energy requirements, but has a small tummy and may not receive all they require at meal times.
- When serving fruit desserts, mash rather than puree at this stage for a chunky texture.
- Your toddler should be well settled into a 3 small meals and 1-2 snacks per day routine.
